What can I do now? Maintain an open dialogue with your child.
Use filtering software to block unwanted content.
Encourage your child to 'think before they post'.
Familarise yourself with the privacy settings.
If your child is being bullied online, save all available evidence, and know where to report the incident (School, CEOP and Police).

Helpful Websites You can use these websites to find out more information.

- www.childnet.com
- www.thinkuknow.co.uk
- www.kidsmart.org.uk
- www.parentinfo.org

If you find something on the internet, that you are worried about you should report it to CEOP, through their website or their dedicated buttons.

Conversation Starters • Ask your children to tell you about the websites and apps they like to use and what they enjoy doing online. • Ask them if they know where to go for help, where to find the privacy settings and how to report or block. • Ask them about how they stay safe online. What tips do they have for you, and where did they learn them? What is OK and not OK to share?
